

This Thing Called Grief: All Ages, All Cultures

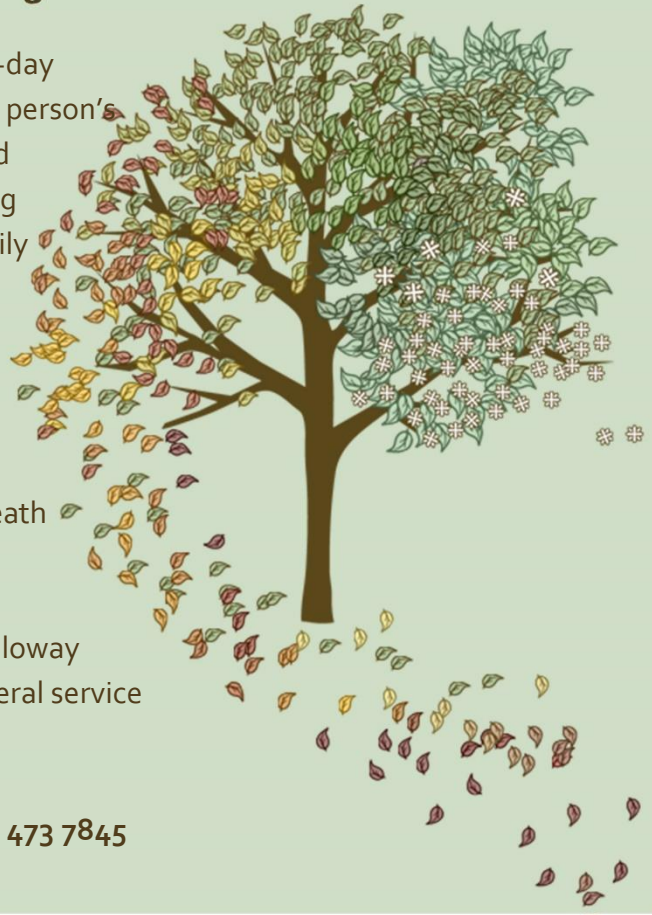

AHPCA
alberta hospice palliative care association

"This Thing Called Grief: All Ages, All Cultures" is a full-day workshop. Grief is a universal reaction to death, yet each person's grief is unique, influenced by circumstances, religious and cultural beliefs. This workshop will focus on grief involving children and cultural differences in grief. Caregivers, family members, community volunteers and healthcare professionals are all welcome.

Guest Presenters: Laura Coatsworth, MSW, BMus, works at Hospice Calgary's Sage Centre, counselling children and teens who have experienced a significant death in their lives.

Kathy Cloutier, an honours graduate of Humber College, has been a funeral director with McInnis and Holloway Funeral Homes for many years. Her desire to work in funeral service was a direct result of her own profound loss.
